... Make me wanna Holla

What's going on....

Mother, Mother
There's too many of you crying
Brother, Brother, Brother
There's far too many of you dying
You know we've got to find a way
To bring some love in here today

Father, Father
We don't need to escalate
See, War is not the answer,
For only love can conquer hate
You know we've got to find a way
To bring some love in here today

Picket lines, and Picket signs
Don't punish me with brutality
Talk to me, so you can see
What's going on
What's going on?

Mother, Mother
Everybody thinks we're wrong
But who are they to judge us
Simply 'cause our hair is long
You know we've got to find a way
To bring some understanding here today

Picket lines...Brother
And Picket signs...Brother
Don't punish me with brutality
Common' talk to me
So you can see
What's going on
Yeah what's going on?
Tell me, what's going on

Instead of different words, however, we're stuck with simple adjectives. Close friend. Best friend. Childhood friend. Intimate friend. Trusted friend. Beloved friend. But whether you use adjectives or different words, few could deny the nearly infinite meaning in such a simple word.

Friends are special people. We can't pick our family, and we're sorely limited in the number of them at any rate. Society and mores (and often our own conscience) dictate we select a single mate. But our friends can be as diverse and infinite as the adjectives we choose. Our friends, in a very real sense, reflect the choices we make in life."

Comments: Daddy words can not express how much I miss you. You were my world. I lost my best friend the day you died. You and I could talk about anything. I could tell you things without you getting mad "sometimes" :) I wish you were here. Daddy I need you to hold me up. I feel like I am falling out of this world. I dont feel like I have it in me anymore to be a fighter. I am becoming weaker and weaker day by day. You were the rock that kept me going day in and day out. Without you I have noone in this world to catch me when I fall. Oh daddy, what am I to do? Help me.I would give anything to hear one of your famous long speeches. I just want my daddy back. If you can hear me in the heavens above you and PaPa Charles please send me a sign I miss you so much. I love you always daddy.

Love,

We shared a word "Stubborndness"!
If he was for me a black and great man full with surprising things, I'm today a white and perhaps great man full with surprising things...Thanks to him!
Every days since this too dark day september 12th 2006, he is in my spirits. I talk and write about him almost every days. U.S.A will finish to take a law to abolish death penalty. Farley and again others like him will pay this by theirs lifes. Our fight has been a step towards this target. I write again today his name in the aim he lives forever in the memory of this world:
Farley Charles MATCHETT

His old brother François

In french:
Il y a plus d'un an, je perdais mon jeune frère.
Nous partagions un mot: "Tenacité"!
S'il était pour moi, un homme noir grand et plein de ces choses étonnantes, je suis aujourd'hui un homme blanc et peut-être fort et plein de ces choses étonnantes...Merci à lui!
Tous les jours depuis ce si sombre jour, le 21 septembre 2006, il est dans mon esprit. Je parle et j'écris à son propos presque tous les jours. Les U.S.A finiront par faire une loi pour abolir la peine de mort. Farley et d'autres hommes comme lui paieront encore cela de leurs vies. Notre combat a été une marche vers cet objectif.
J'écris encore aujourd'hui son nom afin qu'il vive dans la mémoire de ce monde:

I was wrong using the words "no patience" Farley ... so your name, won't fell with Joseph Lave's murder, the "a year and a day later" ... a court order stopped his execution today. They argued with Kenneth' case, "Lave's attorneys were asking the US Supreme Court to halt the execution, contending that Lave participated in the holdup but was not the actual killer."
But.. "In an order signed late Wednesday, a state district judge agreed with Watkins' (new DA)request to stop the execution."

Hey dearest Farley, how are you doing? Close friends of mine gave me a note earlier today ...smile.

Thinking of me and Farley and I got one phrase " A man wrote in a book who lost his wife to cancer, "she was the light of my life". Yes, because of you Farley... this man! and in loving memory - I miss you much! Where are you tonight, I'm here ....
Feel somehow very close to Kenneth Foster because you sent me to his window some cages apart from yours in the visitingroom and you yelled my name to him, smile and I went, gave him smile and went back to you, think it was in 2002, he knows you and the fight, and he won a struggle some days ago. 7 hours before they planned to kill him, Perry saved his own political head with commuting his death sentence to life in prison. A victory for us all, but all a bit late for us, remembering Baezley ... you wrote about your "Nephew", later they forbit to kill the youth.

Can I do something for you Farley, maybe watch a sunset with you .... a long walk on the beach, or do you find time for me tonight? Would you reserve a dance or dance for me tonight, wow... yeah, nobody will know, smile ... I'm still so hurt, so angry of the Major who corrupted our last meeting, wanted to go through the e-mails from Mr.Haughton, step by step until your last call from the chamber, not this year maybe next year.... they want kill Joseph tomorrow, "One year and one day after Matchett" he said, and I think they do it.

Miss you much, I'm a bit too busy, moving in another City right now, so hope you will find me, Farley, but I already know you will as always. See you later.

But that would be selfish of me. You are in a better place now daddy. You have no more pain. I want you to know that the fight is still going on. I will never forget my memories of you and I. I will hold on to them forever. One day I plan on sharing them with my children. The love you gave me I dont think I will never feel that again in life. You and I were the best of friends. I dont have anyone I can tell my secrets and problems to. The state of Texas took my best friend away September 12, 2006. Oh, daddy I miss you so much. You are in a better place now. Sleep on daddy. I love you so very much. There is no man in this world that can or ever replace your love. Noone will ever come close to your love. I send you kisses to the heavens above. Until we meet again, I love you daddy:) -Kari

Comments: Hi guys,
People do change thats reality. The bible might say an eye for an eye, but the creator will deal with whom needs to be dealt with. Murder is wrong regardless of it being a civilian doing it or the state! Killing someone on death row doesn't give closure it merrily causes more victims of crime.
some need to think about why there r no qualified medical personal allowed to take part in executions. It would be because they take an oath to promise to preserve the right to life not take it away. With that said the criminal in question deserves to spend a lengthy time in jail but to pay with their life? Afterall the Death Penalty was brought in as a deterrent. It was a deterrent for the criminal but for others although some seem to think it is for the criminal so they wont reoffend. Obviously this hasn't worked because there are more people on death row now than there has ever been let alone the ones that havent been represented fairly!! I can't wait for the day that the death penalty is abolished and America truely joins other civilised countries once and for all! The death penalty doesn't stop murder, Education does!!!

just want to let you know, I got a message through Carlton, he wondered, and asked me if I know a Joseph ... it was just a line he didnt understand, the man in the cell next to him said: Tell Petra " I received an execution day one year and one day after Matchett", nothing else.

Joseph is in the cell next to him on Death Watch and this note was powerful, I never met him personally but we share the same love for you and he knows this! I sent Joseph a card, saying you were never very patient, (like me) so you are awaiting him and when you both are together you should not forget about me, smile. Sometimes I wish I would know so much about you as he does.

Its so sad we have to meet this way ....

Much love and please give Joseph a hug from me when he arrives .... just for thinking of me and knowing I understand!

I don't know you and I did not know your daddy, but I can sure feel the love you have for him. That is a great thing. My son is also on Texas Death Row and he too has a little boy, I pray that my beautiful grandson will love his daddy just as much as you loved yours. My son loves that little boy with all of his heart and although he does not see him often, his love grows stronger by the day.
May God bless you and continue to give you the strength to keep going. My deep sympathy for you.

P.S. I love my son with all my heart and I know God is with him and will never leave him.

Blessings to all of you who have supported all the men and women on Texas Death Row as well as their families.

....the difference done from 1991 I see too, in your mind, your spirit and life ... not so much in heart I think... this "difference" in your life over the years on Death Row from the guy with golden collar grown to a special man using your stubbornness to dug your person deeply in many hearts forever and you got wise, more and more ... think we both would never had met in the "free world" but only in this circumstance .... and I am happy knowing you in my life now, so I'm a bit afraid I will look old soon aside you with your "glases".

Comments: It is wrong to kill people. Whether you are the state of Texas. Or a individual. But without a deterrent like the death penalty. More people will be killing others. Criminals need to realize. There must be a penalty for their actions. The bible states. A eye for a eye. Therefore if someone kills another. They should forfeit their own life. I have no pity for those that they strap to a gurney. They are receiving their just punishment

Comments: rob, I cannot find any better in those states handling. Who stops brutality and how?
And people are able to change. I personally remain in struggle for justice from the state of Texas.

*State-administered death is always a greater horror than any other by virtue of the methodical reasoning that precedes it. French philosopher Albert Camus wrote that "capital punishment is the most premeditated of murders, to which no criminal's deed, however calculated, can be compared. "For there to be an equivalency, the death penalty would have to punish a criminal who had warned his victim of the date on which he would inflict a horrible death on him and who, from that moment onward, had confined him at his mercy for months. Such a monster is not to be encountered in private life."*

Comments: I can imagine people missing this person. Family,relatives, friends. But why was he on death row? Because he didn't do anything? He murdered. And as it is in several states they still have the death penalty. He is a victim of his own actions. He knew what he did was wrong. He knew he had to face the consequences. That's why he is dead now.

Brother you mentioned that night, so I sent him my best wishes for a blessed New Year with much success in his job. His heart is on the very right place ... I think.

So be with us Farley, this last year wasn't that good ... Texas exceeds them all as always, 24 men killed in the chamber and the "texan president" brought it to a chaos as expected in the world.

He forced another fast execution to cover his close relationship with him from before ... feared his deal in the past war could come to light in a fair trail ...

Miss you much and hope you found your place in peace already.

Peace and Love

I often sit and think about all the good times we had together. And how I use to get mad at my family(smile) and write and tell you all of there business.---the good and the bad. I miss you so much, I don't like to talk are read the bad things some people write, but thats there opinion. I know the truth. And I honestly believe in my heart that you are in a better place. I try to play it off that I'm okay, but on the inside my heart is broken. Not only did the state of Texas take my POPS, they took my best friend. But I know they will have to pay at the end. So I say to you now Thanks for being my dad, thanks for being my friend, and thanks for leaving me with the thoughts that you are at PEACE!!!

Happy 44th B-day, your getting old!!!!

Comments: Hey Dearest!

Just a short note ... as you had recommended me to hire the attorney in Huntsville I did it. I know your main purpose was different meant with ... find out about their bad games ... and let her bring you off the restriction list -"no visits, no mail", which destroyed our now last visit ( we got to now about 10 days before the approved visitation) ... and a good month before they terminated your life here. Wow, it's still as they turn the knife in my stomach again.

So the attorney is good, and I remember her as you pointed on her in Polunsky's visitation room some years ago. She sent some first papers now .... and the first time I got an idea how Major Nelson got my name and yours on the plan on the July 5th 2006.

Another Inmate from Death Row made a request, had to mention my name in his case and they had their DRC-Meeting on the 5th in Huntsville for reviewing "grievances" from Polunsky Unit. He was denied and that's not wrong, but "Bingo" Warden Massey took my name "home" and checked my name in Polunsky Unit's registration ... Oh she has a planned visit with Matchett, ok we remove her from the list and the DRC put the crème on it, negative mailing list for Matchett and her .... (I can appeal they wrote knowing the next meeting is after the planned visit) That's it! No wrongdoing by you and me was needed ...

I still have to fight the pain, so the attorney will continue and ask for the reason they had, I am curious.... and also why the DRC all rubber-stamps what comes from Polunsky Unit.

So, Baby you said: " Remember ... the Sun always shine after the Storm." Yeah I still feel in the middle of the storm, but I am waiting ....

When I've put all papers together in this cause, I'll bring it up to "how" are the conditions/ and the leadership in Polunsky with this, too. Our situations fit in the time were they fight the European visitors loudly, now some of your former "fella's" are protesting the conditions in their possible way. Hunger Strikes, Suicide ....

See you on your Birthday.

Love and Peace
Petra

Farley is gone it didn' bring back anyone who lost their life, there is no closure and there is no justice. What we have is another man murdered another family suffering another mother without her son, another daughter without her daddy another sister without her brother. This circle must be broken. How can murdering the murder be right? To Farleys daughters, look at the reflection in the mirror see your dad fight for something don' let his murder go in vain. I pray for you all that are lved in this. Understand, no one has ever said what Farley did was right. It doesn't take a lot of brains to know that murder is wrong. How is the state of Texas any better? How can murder be justice served? If Farley dying brought closure and satisfaction to this family then I think they are the family we need to be praying for.

RIP Farley through your crime you have touched many lives.

Not easy to find the right words while I am speechless and sad about all kind of killings! Do not kill,that's what you get to know when you are a child, but why then a state is going to kill in the name of law. The death penalty has to be abolished since long. It never can be the right way to show something better to the criminals, to the murderers, to the world. Active Violence produce Violence! Hate destroys!
Love, Peace, Forgiveness, Tolerance and Understanding could give all of us a better world!
Jesus died for his trust, faith and love that he had in us.
Incredible, but still we don't learn from the nightmares.
I haven't known Farley really, but I know some of his friends. Be sure he didn't die for nothing and he always will be around in your hearts and thoughts and be with us in our struggles and efforts to get something better done to the world.
No doubt, by now Farley has found peace, light and love that he deserves as all of us.
God's mercy is great and he forgives whatever happens!
People with hate, who can't forgive are really poor. It seems that they can't forgive themselves.
Blessings and Love,

Marina

Comments: To our dearest Friend Farley,

So, Texas decided to take your life despite your rights were not fully respected in accordance with the US Constitution they speak overall on this Planet as THE EXAMPLE of Democracy. It was on 09/12/06.

It was a real choc for us all who have been writing with you for some years and who have been able to know the man you became along your years in the hell of the DR where every life is denied from the moment the inmate come in.
But to be honest it is not a surprise because once again Texas has chosen revenge and this State teach people to hate despite they tell that they place their lives under God. I suppose we do not have the same God. Well, ours helps the victims' families to carry on their pain (which we do understand and always take into account) and HE teaches how to provide the sinner to get Mercy and Compassion. That's the only way to find out Peace and to reach our spiritual demanded level to life on the other side of this window when our life ends.

There is NO OTHER CONDITION for us and in the opposite our hate will be our hell and this will forever until we understand Jesus's words that are "LOVE EACH OTHERS LIKE I LOVED YOU" it means UNCONDITIONAL LOVE which means further DO NOT JUDGE IF YOU DO NOT WANT TO BE JUDGED.

Well, the one who kills today even on behalf of Justice or on behalf of God has to take on his shoulders the responsibility of becoming a killer and to assume it face to one's consciousness.

Do you know a human on this earth who has to substitute itself to God ? just have a look on the Humanity's Story and think of ... violence circle has to be broken !

Farley did this along the years he had to live in the DR and knew it was the only way for him to reach Peace. He was sincerely sorry for what happened as he was under drug's power. If society want a world without crime it has to create the conditions in which violence is banned. Is it the case ? NO for sure ... many become rich with weapons and drug ... so, many will still die ...

His beautiful letters, his photos will be with us forever. Let's God judge Farley's soul and let's pray for he has found out Peace and his way ... let's keep in our prayers the victims ... it's the only way we can help now, to pray for them as for Farley and God who knows everything will take things in His Hands.

There is no possible (bearing)life without Mercy and hate will only destroy a little bit more those who feel it in their hearts but won't set them free ... even with revenge. To end, Farley never pretended he was an angel and he always faced up what happened. He did know that nothing would be able to repair what was taken off ...

One day we'll meet again ... until then, we do remain the struggle and won't forget any victim's families for who we pray and feel compassion knowing that some decided to choose the Life and Mercy to be set free and others only go on destroying themselves in a deep and everlasting pain by demanding revenge and having a heart full of hate. We do complain them ... let's hope they'll find enough strength to forgive and so, to contribute to set their souls free ...

Love always,
Your extended family

You people think you can get away with this and everything else, calling and writing emails to family of Uries telling them that they should accept Farley's FORGIVENESS, NOT APOLOGY. He killed him and the other two and to not see the truth in the matter, you're pathetic. Open your eyes to the truth. If you do the crime, you damn well know that there is a punishment for that crime, whatever the punishment may be. Comments: Dear LaMarcus,

I know how you feel. My Dad was taken from me when I was 7 years old and it was somebody else's fault. This was 29 years ago and it still hurts very much. But if you go on carrying all that hatred inside of you that obviously tortures you, you will never be happy again and you will never feel peace and love inside of you. You see, people are not either bad or good. If they were, that would be great, because it would be very easy to hate the bad ones and love the good ones. But the world is not like that. Everyone has a bad side and a good side and the reason for all that hatred in our world is that most time we only want to see the bad things in a person. Why not try to focus on the positive part of a person's character in order to support love, understanding, and tolerance? You know, with your words you hurt me deeply, because I love Farley from all of my heart and I always will, so I guess you hate me too. I do understand that you'll never be able to love Farley, but I promise you that you'll feel better when you stop hating him.

you are a wonderful person, my respect to come into here and remind us not to forget your father. We hopefully never will do!
R.I.P. Uries Anderson and dear old Lady Mrs Melonee Josey and it hurts me deeply what was done to you Ms.Ola Mae Williams.

Now you've read about the other side of the table here ... And believe me we never forget the victims of a crime, but the Death Penalty creates new ones.

I would love supporting the victim families how ever I could, but I cannot support people who are seeking death of a human being. So I chose fighting for Life, supporting men and women on Death Row over their long lasting way until the barbabic punishment often take their life ....

No, I didnt walk in your shoes, and hope never will do but a judicial System neither should do that, it should see the whole table ....

In Memoriam of Farley, this is the man I met ... and learned to love.
So we continue our healing process now, but remaining in the struggle for Justice.

The rage that I feel and the words that I want to use to express my feelings are but of ignorance, but I have chosen to write as if I have or had not lost my father by the hands of another human being. This man that you all are fighting or fought for committed a brutal crime that is being treated or taken as if he robbed a convenience store. Now from what you all have heard and not seen or walked in my shoes to know what exactly happen in this crime. You know before I go on I must ask where was the support for my family and I as we layed a man to rest that had not been called home by GOD but his life was shorten by another human being??? Where were you all then? You say you are against the death penalty but why because it is planned, but where is the justice for a man MURDERED in his own home. A home we define in USA as a safe place, a place where all worry is gone, a place that is full of love and love ones, a place where you build and a place where you create JOYFUL memories. BUT some how this home that my father built that I STILL RESIDE IN TODAY IS FILLED WITH HURT AND UNJUSTICE. UNJUSTICE YOU ASK. The injustice that you ask for this murderer to REST IN PEACE while you all brutally slain my father over again due to false FACTS and MEDIA DISTRUCTION... Lets not forget my family is not the only family that he destroyed. And you want to call self defense two stabs to the back and a hammer to the head. That is not self to defense. And this man (Farley) uncle was married to my father's sister, making him apart of the family that he cruelly took ones life from. On top of the self defense that you so boldly stand behind in considering Farley's accusations of not having a fair trail, Farley was arrested when attempting to cash one of many checks of my father that he killed in self defense as you all put it. I am not going to stoop to you all level and judge another human being. My family is not the ones that sentenced this man to death row. I have forgave him but the memories still penetrates through my mind every waking moment of my life. And for the person that says my family should stop the madness as well as apologize for his actions. One must remeber where the madness first started. Yes people change but after it is to late to take back what sorrow, hurt, pain, disappointment that they have caused. Farley chose his paths in life as we all will do. Farley was given many chances to go down another lane in life but yet and still chose to continue down the SAME path. That weekend in July of 1991 Farley killed a 74 year old woman, badly beat a 91 year old woman, and assaulted a young boy. Farley drove the car of the 74 year old woman that he killed to Houston a day before he killed my father. And to set the story straight he was convicted of her murder which he got life for. This woman that he killed Farley did yard work for her. So while you all point fingers and say that "TEXAS KILLED FARLEY". One must remember and I am going to remind you all "FARLEY KILLED URIES ANDERSON SR." A father, brother, uncle, husband, and a friend too many. I was thirteen and my mother not by chose but by force had to try and raise a man, something that most thirteen year old boys father helps them with. I am a firm believer that every human will make mistakes but it is forgiven and a lesson is taught when you as a human being do not continue to make that same mistake over and over again. You know it is not the system that is messed up but the people that the system is formed to protect. You see we as people form a belief by something taught it is not something you are born with so this causes alot of people to become simple minded. Have any of you gone through what my family and I have gone through? Have you walked in my shoes? And if you havent ask yourself where would you stand if the tables were turned?

Comments: Dear Farley,

Till the end I hoped and prayed for your life being spared despite being quite aware that there is no justice in Texas. When I read the very sad news my eyes were full of tears and heart so empty due to such a big powerless feeling. But I also was awake when the fatal hour came and was praying and it was like I knew the very moment when your soul left this earth to fly away to a Peaceful place made of Love and Mercy where there's no more pain, no more tears, no more suffering and no more Unjustice ... I felt like you told me "now, I'm free and will always be by your side". Well, when tears come and pain is too heavy I ask you for some help and to send me a sign and my pain is going aways as your smile is forever in my heart and it's like your word of encouragment were whispered to my ears. I find out the courage in yours you have shown to the very end. You can be proud of your daughters, your loving Mother and your Granny ... they're all so courageous like they were untill the end and we all will be by their sides as yours to go on this struggle our ways in order to stop this mess that the DP is.

You and yours are in my heart and prayers and of course, your friends and supporters are too. I would say, your extended family because that's the feeling they all provided me with along these last months.

I send you all my love and affection being sure that where you're now, you can feel them. Please, do not forget to keep an eye on us ! :-)

Comments: Hey brother,

Sorry for my silence. It took me a few days to write you a note. Even if I was not expecting much for the so-called justice of Texas, so even if I was ready for your lost, it was a pretty big shock when our friend, Dennis Longmire, who was, candle in his hands, in front of the Huntsville Walls, and told me over the phone the terrific words.

Dennis tried his best to not be emotional when he said: "Farley Matchett has been executed by the state of Texas". Dennis witnessed probably more than 300 executions, so he can't be emotional. But I felt all his pain in his voice, despite his efforts to stay strong. He then expressed all his support to me and left me to reach your daughters. People like Dennis Longmire give us hope to keep fighting. He lives a few blocks away from the death of chamber in Hunstville and teach criminal law at the local university. Every single execution he is there, outside the red walls, standing with his candle, despite the wind, the rain and the glances of Hunstville's citizens. I take time to thanks this brave man, so rare in Texas.

"Farley Matchett has been executed by the state of Texas".

I will remember these words forever. Since 10 years that we were friends, 10 years of writting letters, with a few meeting with you during these times, with my two films that I've done about you, I had always tried to erase of my mind what was waiting you. Now I have to deal with it, and it is pretty hard. In the last letter you send me, you asked me to do all my best to help you to see the sun on september 13th. Me neither I did not see it. I do not know how was it in Texas, but here in Montreal, the sky was pretty dark.

For various reasons, I was not very present beside you over the last months. I do not want to regret it. Also, I did not came to be with you that sad day. Over the past weeks, my plans about that changed every days. One day I decided to come, the next one I changed my mind. I think I was affraid to witness it. Five days before september 12th, I finally choose to come. And then I learned that I was not anymore on your visiting list. Again I do not wan't to express regrets for that, but still, I am deeply sad that I was not able to came. Why you did not told me that nobody would witnessing it? I understood that you asked your mother and daughters to not come. But why you did not asked me? I am sure it was harder to be alone.

I talked with your daughter, Shakaria, a few minutes before you entered that white room. She wrote me also today. I am very glad to see that she is willing to keep the fight. She is proud of you and strong to face adversity. She called me her "canadian uncle"!! It is an honour. I will do my best to support your entire family. I thinked a lot also about your grand mom Penny. I was wondering how she can deal with that, in her little house, surounded by cows and fields. I hope her dog is still there to support her... She love you so much.

Hey my friend, keep an eye on us. Penny, your daughters, Annie, your brother, François, Claire, Gina, Petra and all the others (and they are a lot!) will need you. Same for me!

I love you brother, I missed you already.

Friendships forever,
your friend and brother, Julien.

May it be true that you are flying free and your soul is at ease now but your thoughts and spirit will be missed. I did not know you personally but hey - I read your words and felt your power and I have a problem with going on without your strength! There will be a way to go on with yours and all the others will to make a change. All your friends, who were with you in this fight to condemn the Death Penalty and we all will do our best to get this black spot off the American Law-System. Comments: le 13/09/06, Farley s'en est allé, sans doute seul physiquement, mais quand il a fermé les yeux, il a du penser à sa famille et tous ses amis américains et surtout étrangers qu'il avait depuis plusieurs années! Certes, notre soutien n'aura en rien permit de le faire échapper à la peine de mort, ni même de lui permettre d'avoir un dernier recours! Mais sans doute, certainement même , il l'aura aidé à tenir le coup mentalement et physiquement pendant ces 15 longues années de captivité dans une prison qui ne respecte même pas les droits élémentaires de l'être humain!
Je ne sais quoi penser après les révélations d'un soit disant journal Américain sur un autre passé criminel de farley dont j'ignorais tout (si ce passé est bien réel). Ce que je sais, c'est que Farley n'est plus là, sans doute finalement soulagé de ne plus avoir à lutter. Je suis persuadé d'une chose, que ce ne seront pas les différents comités de soutien étrangers qui feront cesser ce système arbitraire, cruel et souvent injuste! Mais l'opinion Américaine qui lentement mais surement prendra conscience qu'elle fait fausse route!
Tous les amis de Farley se retrouvent ici pour un dernier Adieu. Mais ses écrits, pensées et nos souvenirs resteront...
Salut farley!

These cold blooded murderers want to kill you now. They are so damn sure they do

You've been struggling against injustice, suffering for 15 years. You've been betrayed by crummy, crook lawyers .. it's time you get relieved now. May God help you get away from all this insanity .. and stand close to the ones who love you.

Comments: Death Penalty is a barbarian penalty. Even countries, which are said "less developed" are abolishing it. USA always thinks it the best developed country, so, it can start giving evidence of this, by abolishing death penalty. It would be a start, after that, there still would be a lot to do ....
The Board of Pardons and Paroles doesn't want to give clemency but it's the fault of Haughton who file the clemency petition too late. How can administration be stronger than a human life. I wonder what would have happened if Bush' daughters had done something like this and if their lawyer had filed the clemency petition too late. It would clearly have been the fault of the lawyer.

Farley, I am with you and hope this silliness will stop and that you'll be free

Hugs

Comments: Dear Brian,

take my thanks for your "decision" and my deep understanding for your loss .... Farley's Mom will hopefully bring him your message, time is short now maybe. She will be there too for her son and please allow that we do all that your uncle and family traveling to the Wall Unit for less and a return home and Farley will be still alive! We often have to await the news until the day they already gave a man his last meal. Horrible and hopefully Farley has not go through this, the tears of his daughters, and many very close friends.

Maybe Farley can forgive you, he is for sure very sorry, we don't want and I for my person perhaps can say this: Forgive them because they don't know what they are doing. Because kill a man for had killed a person is nothing else than revenge, hate and bringing no peace in the circle of violence.

Its the same pain now as you described, we feel, we want see the smile when Farley is ok in his cell no bigger than your bathroom. A death sentence for a loved one. Farley C. Matchett is a friend of us, a father and a son, a grandson (Mrs Penny has a hard time, too.) So please know my respect for your person and all your family members, but please stop that madness.

I really hate the fact that YOU took my grandfather from me and my family when you killed him on July 12,1991. I still miss his smiling face and all of the trips we made to Huntsville in the gold Ford truck. But to say that you will be getting wat you deserve on next week is wrong because the bible teaches forgiveness and so did my grandfather. So with that being said Farley I forgive you for your wrong doing I wont be at there on next week but my uncle jr and mark will so maybe you could also ask for forgiveness from them. Thanks for reading this and I hope you will do as I asked on nxt week because you know forgiveness is one of the many ways of getting into heaven.

C' est maintenant que j' aurais bien voulu savoir écrire en Anglais! mais malheureusement c' est trop tard.
Je voudrais te dire que je suis de tout coeur avec toi et que je trouve injuste que tu sois exécuté pour un crime que tu n' as pas commis.
Je suis scandalisé de voir que vos bourreaux,eux ne seront jamais jugé et encore moins exécuté pour les crimes qu' ils commettent sans aucun remords.
Je voudrais tant que tout s' arrange pour toi et pour tes amis. et pour ca je prierais pour vous.

Comments: Farley is okay, he said from Harris County Jail, where he received an execution date from the judge for 09/12/06 ... he could catch up there in phonecalls and T.V. smile, until his return to Death Row and his new laywer was with him to work close to him. Farley is still in faith, has the chance to fight with the lawyer, who started work with a 1/4 of his fees, an enormously high amount. We need help to let continue this work!

Comments: I am a factual investigator that has worked so many cases in the State of Texas and continue to be in a total state of shock at the lack of investigations done at the front end of these cases. I am even further shocked to see many of the State Writs being nothing more than a carbon copy of the Direct Appeal which sets one up for procedural barring rules. This entire system is so faulty it's embarrassing.

Comments: The first time I wrote some lines to Farley was in the ned of 1999 in order to translate a mail that was done for him by my father and then, step by step we started to write to each others and I discovered a man full of energy and cleverness and such a wisdom. He does know the laws and the system and opened most of his friends' eyes on it. Well, seen from Europe it's so hard to undersand how this US system works that sometimes one's feels it's impossible to reach any knowledge about it. Farley is quite able to make great things outside as he makes inside in supporting those who don't have any friends and financial support. He always has a kind and peaceful word for those who are suffering and has a great Faith that surely helps him daily. We wish him to get a fair and true Justice in his self-defence case.

In friendship always,

Comments: My first impression of Farley when I saw him on D.R. at Polunsky was, "Wow, he looks very studious!" His glasses give him the look of a Booker T. Washington, or a very studious, educated man. Then I got to know him by talking very briefly with him when I had a window of an opportunity wwhen my friend Petra, who had been sitting beside me as she visited Farley and I was there visiting my friend Don, she had just left; and then Farley motioned for me to pick up the visitor's phone and talk to him, and when I spoke to him, I realized not only how knowledgable he was about the law and other things but also full of energy and hope! I admired that in him in the bleak surroundings of Polunsky. The horros of D.R. can not truly be understood by us on the outside, we can get a taste of it visiting a unit like Polunsky in TX, or getting an even closer taste of it being in a prison ministry program for inmates, as I once was, but I had worked the ministry not on Death Row then. Not until I met Don and Farley for the first time did I ever visit D.R. The amazing thing about reaching out, and helping someone is, that on D.R., these guys need help! They are human, and they have a heart and a soul. There is no such thing as a disposable soul. The Death Penalty will end in the USA, I feel I will live to see it in my lifetime, but for the loss of so many of these men dying now and before then, and until that happens, it is beyond sorrow. Our prayers must pierce the vault of heaven first, and that's just exactly what our prayers are doing now!

Comments: The death penalty needs to be done away with. Two wrongs don't make a right. It is so racially and economically unbalanced. The only ones on death row are those who could not afford to buy the best lawyers. It is not fair. Also there are too many being found innocent. You wonder how many innocent people have been put to death, what if that was your loved one. If someone like the "Green River Killer" can get life after what he did, they need to do away with the death penalty for all. Even Charles Manson got life....
